Karen De Mauro’s forty years of teaching ensures disciplined, relevant, creative encounters that combine factual information, story, myth and science in joyful thought provoking ways. Workshops are built around the topic of your choice: 3-4 workshops per day, shaped to suit your schedule, location, students and teachers’ needs. In-person socially distant trips available

Karen De Mauro and The Acting Center are committed to continue providing high-quality programs in a safe environment during this global health crisis. Given the state of the on- going COVID-19 pandemic, programs will transition to a virtual platform until further notice. Programs will have a live option and semi-live option with pre-recorded materials. Facilities with significantly low transmission rate may be eligible for in-person programs.
